Equality and diversity

Equality and diversity means ensuring we include all sections of the community in everything we do in a fair way. This includes getting rid of unlawful discrimination, promoting equality of opportunity and access, and valuing people's differences when providing our services. We'll take equality and diversity into account when making decisions about housing applications. We collect equality information about applicants so we can check whether we are providing a fair and equal service to all.

Any extra information

If you would like to provide any extra information to support your housing application, please use the space provided (continue on a separate sheet if necessary):

Data Protection Legislation – Important Information:

- The information you have provided will enable Durham Key Options to process your application and determine an outcome in accordance with relevant legislation and company policy. Your information will be held on both computerised and manual files.
- Your data may be disclosed to other organisations or individuals but only in the interests of the pursuance of your application, enquiry, improving our service or in accordance with statutory instruments.
- The partners of Durham Key Options are registered as Data Controllers of personal data relevant to the processing of housing applications, under Data Protection law (including the General Data Protection Regulations) with the UK Information Commissioner’s Office.
- We are required under Section 6 of the Audit Commissions Act 1998 to participate in the National Fraud Initiative (NFI) data matching exercise. Tenancy and application data held by the authority will be provided to the Audit Commission for NFI and will be used for cross-system and cross-authority comparison for the prevention and detection of fraud.
- To read our Privacy Policy (how we use, share and retain your personal data) visit: www.durhamkeyoptions.co.uk or ask your local housing partner for details.

Declaration

I/We have read the summary of the Durham Key Options Letting Policy and I/we understand the following:

- If I/we give information that is incorrect or incomplete, you may take action against me.
- It is an offence to give false information or withhold information relevant to my/our application and that if I/we do so, I/we could be liable to a fine of up to £5,000 under section 171 of the Housing Act 1996.
- Durham Key Options could take steps to withdraw an offer of accommodation or seek possession of a tenancy that has been granted because of a false statement that I/we have made or that anyone acting on my/our behalf has made.
- Everyone has the right to live safely and peacefully without worrying about being annoyed or harassed. Anti-social behaviour means behaviour that causes or is likely to cause fear, alarm or distress. I/We agree that I/we will not be involved in any such anti-social behaviour or any criminal activity, as described above, if offered a tenancy.
- If accommodation is offered through Durham Key Options, I/we must keep to the conditions of the tenancy agreement I/we have with that partner landlord.
- Durham Key Options will verify the information I/we have given in this form with agencies like the police, social services, other local authority departments, the probation service, doctors, landlords and any other relevant person, if they wish to do so, as allowed by law.
- On occasion, I/we may receive a message from Durham Key Options by email or text but only for the purpose of notifying of policy changes, or to advise that properties I/we have expressed an interest in, are available to let.
- It is my/our responsibility to notify Durham Key Options about any change in my/our circumstances, which might affect my/our application for housing.
